Com. How to Start Your Own Customs Brokerage Business was published in 2007 and is the only book of its kind--documenting the entire process required to start your own CHB business. The author, Jon Sasaki, has now written a study guide to help those planning on taking the exam to study more efficiently and avoid spending hundreds of dollars on special courses and material they may not even find necessary. In this new and concise book he advises the exact same technique he used to pass the test on his first attempt despite not ever having worked in customs brokerage before the exam. Now, both references perfectly compliment each other as they are combined into one easy-to-read book. The combo book helps the reader prioritize his or her studies by distinguishing between the important and not so important sections of the exam's testing material. The book also methodically provides step-by-step guidance through the process of setting up one's own customs brokerage operation. The book includes

- *valuable tips on HTS classification
- *an explanatory breakdown of all sections of the 19 cfr that have appeared more than twice on the last 10 exams (thru Oct. 2010 exam)
- *a comprehensive table that lists all parts and paragraphs of the 19 cfr that have appeared in any of the last

10 exams (thru Oct. 2010 exam) *sample forms, letters, and terms index for setting your customs brokerage business *addresses to helpful web pages *money saving tips to help you achieve your customs broker-related goals even on a shoestring budget

Critical care medicine is one of the fastest-growing areas of practice, and Critical Care Study Guide, 1st ed., was the first reference to combine both concise text and reviews with questions. The second edition expands and improves coverage, including comprehensive studies in airway management, cardioversion and defibrillation, medical ethics, and the use of blood products. The unique combination of text with questions and answers makes this a crucial reference for all practitioners and residents who see patients in the Intensive Care Unit, and those planning to sit for medical boards.
